3. To you, what is the most important aspect of People & Culture to get right?

Jasiri Australia is a fast growing youth organisation based in Canberra. We established Australia's first pay-it-forward empowerment self defence class in 2017. Since then, we have run a number of campaigns, Trailblazer Fellowship for cultural and linguistically diverse young women and launched our inaugural Girls Takeover Parliament program pacific wide.

We're building an amazing team of young, dynamic and fearless leaders with big dreams of changing the world; sparked by the vision of eliminating violence against women and leadership inequality.

OUR IMPACT:

Our goal is to unleash a fearless generation of young women and girls. We want to measurably and sustainably support the lives of many young women and survivors of violence as we can. We aim to do this through creating pathways in leadership, build positive and safe space communities and use self defence as a method of healing and skill development.

THE ROLE:

Our team of wonderful employees and volunteers is growing, and we want to ensure that the team is supported to reach our collective and each individual's full potential. We are searching for a People & Culture Manager with outstanding people skills to help lead and build our organisation. The role will focus on organisational effectiveness and volunteer engagement, and will be given the autonomy to create and implement a strategic vision for the role.

YOU COULD BE OUR NEXT PEOPLE & CULTURE MANAGER IF:

- You are passionate about people and love to make everyone feel valued.
- You want to have a sustainable impact in eliminating youth homelessness and are invested in fixing the problem rather than finding a temporary solution.
- You have experience in managing a team and are confident in communicating across an organisation.

- You can commit to a minimum term of 6 months volunteering, consisting of approximately 5 hours a week.
- You have have passion and energy to contribute to our team's culture.
